WHAT IS SRS 2018?

Welcome to the second annual Student Research Symposium. The symposium is an opportunity for Capilano University students completing research projects or capstone projects to share their findings with their peers, faculty, family, friends, and the wider community.

This year's Symposium features the work of more than 80 students. The 2018 presenters include students from the Bachelor of Arts with a Major in Applied Behaviour Analysis, Bachelor of Arts with a Major in Liberal Studies, Bachelor of Communication Studies, Bachelor of Early Childhood Care and Education, Bachelor of Motion Picture Arts, and the Post-Baccalaureate Diploma in Applied Behaviour Analysis who are completing, or have recently completed, a faculty-supervised research project in fulfillment of their degree requirements.

TERRITORIAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Capilano University is named after Chief Joe Capilano, an important leader of the Squamish (Sḵwxwú7mesh) Nation of the Coast Salish people. We respectfully acknowledge that our campuses are located on the territories of the Lil'wat, Musqueam, Sechelt (shishálh), Squamish (Sḵwxwú7mesh) and Tsleil-Waututh Nations.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thank you to everyone below for their support in organizing this year's symposium. We appreciate your commitment to celebrating the diversity of undergraduate scholarship undertaken by our students. We would also like to extend our thanks to Paul Dangerfield, President, and the Office of the President for the resources required to host this event.
